

State-by-state comparison of electric rates

This map shows the average cost (cents per kilowatt-hour) of electricity for residential consumers.
 Source: U.S. Department of Energy, November 2012

16 states have lower electric rates than Tennessee.
 This puts our state in the lower third of the country, when it comes to average residential rates for electricity.

For more information on state-by-state rates,
 visit www.eia.doe.gov/